FdSc Veterinary Nursing degree programme

nfr n.sh

Duration of the Degree

The FdSc Veterinary Nursing degree programme takes three years. It also includes a minimum of 1,800 hours of placement. These placements are compulsory and may involve additional travel costs.

UK students at an inflationary rate linked to the Retail Price Index (RPI). Therefore, we, advise all UK students considering studying at the RVC to plan their finances based on yearly inflation increases.

The fees for EU and international students are also listed at the above links. These are substantially higher than UK fees as the RVC receives no government subsidy or support for such students and therefore must increase for EU and international students, the RVC will consider a range of factors, including rises in the costs of delivering its teaching and changes in government funding. The increase will not exceed 5% each year or the Retail Price Index (RPI), if higher. We will publish the fee in September of the preceding academic year.

Additional costs

The fees do not cover accommodation costs which, for veterinary nursing students who in 2023-2024 opted to live on campus in College Close, cost £152 per week (2024-25 cost tbc). College Detation (1)-3()-4(g.)]TETQD.0000088

Procedures, Policies and Processes

The RVC has a range of policies and statutory requirements with which it must comply. The documents detailing these procedures in full are available on the RVC website, here: https://www.rvc.ac.uk/about/the-rvc/academic-quality-regulations-procedures.

The full information on Complaints, Appeals and Conduct is also available on our website here: https://www.rvc.ac.uk/about/the-rvc/academic-quality-regulations-procedures-panel-student-appeals-complaints-and-